

We are not against more nudity on tv. It's already all over cable. We believe it has the potential of removing the stigma of the nude body here in the US. Europe doesn't have that issue and it's all about freedom. Isn't that 's what America is about. We feel those folks against it in the name of protecting Johnny & Jill are only asking the government to raise their children for them.