

I strongly oppose censorship and ageism. What exactly is "harmful material that is inappropriate and unsuitable for minors" and who gets to decide? People used to say that some things were inappropriate for women; the whole idea of protecting people from their own freedom is absurd and sick.