

We already have too much TRASH on TV - nudity and filthy language does not have to become the norm for our children to learn from TV. Isn't it easier to just promote wholesome and decent programming? Anyone wishing to dwell on the trashy side of life can subscribe to it - heaven knows there's enough available. PLEASE keep wholesome programming for our innocent children. They are exposed to enough nudity and filthy language as it is.