

I am a concerned parent and citizen that is strongly requesting that the FCC decency standards be tightened. I do not want my children nor myself to be exposed to nudity or profanity on TV. Particularly, the Carls Jr ads are degrading to women and I am disgusted by what America is being exposed to.