

I am strongly against the plans of the FCC to broadcast nudity and use foul language.

I encourage you to make the right decision with our children in mind....they do not need any more immorality on TV.

Thank you for thinking of mine and even your children, they cannot protect themselves they need us to do that for them.

If we don't then who will???