

Please do not relax the rules for decency on TV and Radio. I want to feel comfortable watching TV and listening to radio without feeling offended. It is so important to me that our children and grandchildren are protected from the onslaught of indecency that is around us everywhere. Let's hold the line once and for all on TV and radio.