

My name is Eric Lowell.

I have been involved in emergency communications for nearly 30 years.

I oppose RM-11699.

The amateur service does not exist primarily as an EMCOMM support service.

Other radio services exist that may legally use encryption as licensed.

If there is time during an emergency to consider privacy concerns, then we should question the veracity of the emergency declaration.

Best regards, Eric