

I support retaining existing decency standards on television. The time is long overdue to put the brakes on the foul and filthy nature of television programming. Please do what you can to stop it rather than endorse it. Thank you.