

I urge the FCC to keep the indecency policy in place. If it were made more lenient or done away with, this would have negative ramifications on society, especially families and children. The increased profanity, non-sexual nudity, and sexual content would dramatically impact adults and children in negative ways that would possibly lead to increased violence, delinquent behavior and less kindness and goodwill toward mankind.