

I personally do not agree with the concept of encrypting amateur radio emcomm operations (voice or data). This has many logistical issues based on my experience with various emergencies over the years. Imagine the headaches with hundreds of different hams coming into NYC post-9/11 with various combos of encryption/digital modulation schemes/analog only capabilities!