

I am perplexed as to why Rupert Murdoch still is allowed to operate media outlets in this country, given the recent news that he admits he has been bribing foreign government officials in exchange for news for more than 40 years. I believe bribing foreign government officials is a crime under U.S. law. Are there any investigations into this going on? And if not, why not?