

I am against this proposed change as written. There is no provision for self-regulatory oversight by the amateur community. A group (ARES, RACES ?) must be empowered to hold the electronic "key" to any encrypted communications so that they may be decoded and investigated if improper activity is suspected.