

Dear FCC,

I am against allowing encryption within the HAM bands. HAM currently works because it is self policed. Allowing encryption will allow for activities to occur which could potentially be illegal and/or otherwise outside of the purpose and/or regulations of HAM radio.

Please do not pass RM-11699.

Thank you,

Robert Roberts (kj7ny)