

I am a Mayor of a small city in Arkansas and KD5LBE extra class operator and active with our local office of emergency management. Encryption of anything is not where we need to go. I don't even like the use of 10 codes in an emergency since every agency uses different codes. There was a move to end the use of 10 codes but that seems to have been made a part of history.