

The local CATV company has decided to unilaterally increase our service fees by increasing their customer base. They offered a special bundled rate for lifetime fee of around 50.00. But then changed it to something hovering much more than before. Any help or suggestions on how to deal with is type of misrepresentation would be greatly appreciated.