

As a father of three and grandfather of six precious children, I am appalled that anyone in your position of public trust could and would even consider exposing 'anyone's' children or any family members to the depravity of a few entrepreneurs of filth and destruction. It is my understanding that there are "rules" currently in place that disallow this kind of profane content from being aired publicly. I realize that this current Executive Administration has chosen to 'disregard' the will of the people and not enforce the law of the land. I encourage you all at the FCC not to follow the lead of our Executive Branch, but instead your consciences and reject any proposals that would further lower the standards of broadcast decency, for the sake of our descendants' inheritance and their very souls!
