

Disagree with recent FCC rules change to allow prime time programming to be judged by “egregious” standards that is very vague and probably won’t increase decency standards