

I would like to provide my comments in support of this rule change. It would be very beneficial to be able to, as an example, send Winlink digital traffic that has an attachment that was encrypted. The actual "wrapper" of the traffic would still be "in the clear" to satisfy call sign identification. There should be some allowances for this type of scenario.

Respectfully submitted,
Darryl Quinn - K5DLQ