

I am very disgusted with the two current "Rent-A-Center" commercials that are airing. One, I believe called "Checking me out" shows a man in short jean shorts with a thong showing above the pants. Another shows a man and a woman in their underwear and bra and is called "Strip Search Spot". These commercials are disgusting and vulgar and should be pulled from the air.