

I am against any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. There are TOO many indecent shows on television at the present time let alone changing the rules to allow "brief" or "fleeting" nudity and profanity. I implore the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations and to enforce decency standards on these stations, which the Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce. Thank you.