

I agree with the idea of loosening restrictions on nudity and language on broadcast television, within limits. After 9pm and for live sporting events where passing profanity cannot be helped. There is nothing wrong with the human body and as long as it's after Family Hours there should be no problem. Help broadcast television stay competitive with cable.