

I strongly object to the relaxation of the rules on profanity on T.V. These are Public airwaves and should be controlled by the public, most of whom do not want to have their families exposed to profanity. I respect the right to free speech, but there has to be reasonable limits associated with the use of the public airwaves.