

In today's society I believe many of the existing restrictions on non-sexual nudity and language is far too restrictive and should be relaxed. The current restrictions do not reflect modern life or reality.

In addition I believe the level of censorship in the U.S. is far more restrictive than most other modern countries. I believe we should move into the 21st century and not be continually driven by a puritan mindset.