

We feel that any changes to the current indecency standards are a vital & obvious mistake. Those same changes that would be available to our children, in our homes, and , therefore, understood as having our acceptance would be unacceptable! We should not have to jump thru technical hoops to monitor what airs on TV. Our morals should dictate that and that starts with YOU. An awareness of the deceitful & harmful effects of immoral, illicit, and degrading behavior/language, in addition to, criminal acts, will easily guide you! We suggest using your hearts as well as your heads! If they don't work: look to God...He left thousands of bits of helpful information and the history of the effects of evil choices to help us choose. Please choose responsibly.

Thank you, John & Louise Norville
