

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting." This is an absolutely absurd consideration. Television and radio already have plenty of leeway and if you can't figure out how to broadcast a quality show without nudity and profanity, you should find another career.