Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-1168

Dear Ms. Green:

The Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) advises you that, for the reasons stated below, your above-referenced petition for exemption from the FCC's closed captioning rules has been dismissed as incomplete.

The Bureau advised you by letter dated August 15, 2012, that, unless you submitted the information and materials outlined in the Bureau's letter that were missing from your petition by September 14, 2012, your petition would be dismissed on November 13, 2012.¹ As requested by the Bureau and as cautioned in the Bureau's letter, your petition was dismissed without prejudice on November 13, 2012, because you failed to submit the following:

- documentation of your financial status;
- verification that you have sought additional sponsorship sources or other sources of revenue for captioning; and
- an affidavit or a signature made under the penalty of perjury.

We remind you that, as also noted in the Bureau's letter, with this dismissal, you must comply with the FCC's closed captioning requirements contained in Part 79 of the FCC's rules with regard to the programming that was the subject of your petition.

If you have questions pertaining to this matter, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Sincerely,

Perlesta Hollingsworth
Attorney, Disability Rights Office
Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau
