

I do not believe it is in the people's best interest to relax the indecency rules regarding profanity and nudity. Whichever way the FCC decides to go I believe it is in the people's best interest that the revised or replacement rules clearly state what is prohibited and not prohibited.