

Public Comment: FCC Proceeding 13-86

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards. The FCC must continue to vigorously oppose ALL indecent content, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has affirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies prohibiting indecent broadcast content during hours when children are likely to be in the viewing or listening audience. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest.

I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

Ms. Dortch,

FCC Mail Room

I never felt the need to write to someone about programming until I heard about the so called cartoon "American Dad", the name sounds good and wholesome right? Well it is anything but!

I am talking about the April 14th. episode in particular. The whole show was aimed at adults not children, (14 is still a child), not just adults, but perverted adult subject matter.

Example: The father was wearing panties and fishnet stocking, flogging his wife who has chains on her wrists and her feet chained to a wall, spread eagle.

A man with his wrists bound and only wearing panties.

There are many other disgusting happenings in this episode . I suggest you view some of these shows and put them where they belong on cable where you have to pay to watch this filth.

Our children see enough disgusting perverted things walking down our public streets, they do not need to have it in their homes. Not every home has a caring adult in it to monitor what their child is watching. That's why we have the FCC to enforce policies of decency for the welfare of our children.

I am a 64 year old grandmother with grandkids ranging in age from 20 - 5 years. As I said in the beginning of my letter, I never felt the need to complain until now, there is nothing clean and entertaining for teens to watch anymore.

Please FCC do your job and rid our airwaves of this kind of filth for our children's sake.

Sincerely,

Theresa Cole
