RE: Media Bureau and Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau Seek Comment on Second VPAAC Report: User Interfaces, and Video Programming
Guides and Menus, MB Docket No. 12-108

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, we are providing this ex parte notice of a meeting regarding docket number MB 12-108 between staff of the American Foundation for the Blind (AFB) and the office of Commissioner Pai. Held on Thursday, August 1, 2013, the meeting participants included AFB's Paul Schroeder and Mark Richert and Commission staff Matthew Berry.

The subject matter discussed during the meeting included AFB's support for the Commission's proposal to limit the "upon request" requirement for accessible equipment to devices provided by Multichannel video programming distributors. AFB also briefed Commission staff on the array of related issues, all of which have been previously described in AFB's first ex parte filing in this docket dated July 30, 2013.

Sincerely,

Mark D. Richert, Esq.
