

I certainly hope that the commission adopted the Wright amendment to make costs of prison inmate calling fair and equitable. As a family member of a former inmate I experienced firsthand the financial burden on my family. It is exploiting an already vulnerable section of our society.

Thank you