

I firmly believe that the captioning on caption type phones for the hearing impaired should be default on.