

Secretary Dortch,

My father uses a caption call phone and now since you implemented the need to activate the service by pressing a button has changed the experience. He is not able to remember to activate it making communication with him nearly impossible. Please change it back to its normal settings. Matt Williams