

On Page 6 of the September Consumer Reports magazine there is a story about cell phone service for veterans with disabilities. I am a U.S. Marine with a 70 percent Veterans Administration disability. A cell phone would be of great help to me when my wife or I are away from each other and I need assistance.

Where do I apply for this service?

Thank You

James F. Glover