

Because of the 1000s of research studies world-wide, I believe it to be only prudent to adopt the conclusions of the World Health Organization to implement the Precautionary Principle in all matters relating to EMFs.