Re: Applications of AT&T Inc. and Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. for Consent to Transfer Control and Assign Licenses and Authorizations Held by Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. and Its Subsidiaries, WT Docket No. 13-54

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Allied Wireless Communications Corporation and Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. (collectively, "ATN") hereby provide this supplemental response to the June 5, 2013, Information and Discovery Request from the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") in the above-referenced docket.<sup>1</sup> The enclosed encrypted CD contains supplemental written responses to Requests 13-19 ("Supplemental Response"), which ATN has designated as "Highly Confidential" per the Second Protective Order ("Protective Order").<sup>2</sup>

Pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Information Request and the Protective Order, we are submitting to the Office of the Secretary a disc containing the Supplemental Response and this letter, along with two copies of the same in hard copy. In addition, an equivalent set of copies is being delivered to Scott Patrick of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau's Mobility Division. The public version of this filing is also being filed electronically through the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System.

ATN has made an effort to ensure that none of the information submitted here is privileged under the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege. To the extent that any privileged material may have been inadvertently produced, such production does not waive any applicable privilege. ATN requests that any privileged material inadvertently produced be returned to ATN as soon as such inadvertent production is discovered by any party, and reserves all rights to seek the return of any such material. ATN requests the return or destruction of all confidential material at the conclusion of this proceeding.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned should any questions arise concerning this response or the media ATN has provided.

Sincerely,
