

To Whom It May Concern: K-LOVE is up for renewal, I am in support to keeping this station on the air. It is a lifeline in times of need. There have been so many times where I hear a song or an encouraging word or a story and I am filled with hope and love and know that I am not alone. This radio station is integral to daily life.