

I believe that all children that are in need of help to obtain food to acquire the nutrition they need to perform better in school should have assistance from the government. It's the children's future and ours. No child should go hungry, they are innocent!