

Please do not discontinue e-rate funding for website hosting and email services. We rely heavily on these fee-based services. While free services do exist, they are not easily customizable to our academic environment and expose the students to constant advertising. Going to a free service would be a major step back.

Thank you for your consideration.