

WWIQ (106.9) in the Philadelphia area is being sold again. We have not been given a chance to object. Who are the new owners? What are their objectives?

The FCC should do more to regulate who actually owns and sets agendas for Radio, TV, News organizations in the same regions. There is a organized agenda in the Phila market to block all conservative talk and news.