

E-rate funding provides teachers. The funds used from e-rate are able to offset our district's overall costs. By being a catalyst for funding for our teachers, we are able to keep class size low and help learning be individualized for each of our students. This results in all students reaching their goals and growth in learning.