

Our school relies heavily on e-rate funding to keep our email and web sites operational. (over 90% of our students are eligible for free/reduced lunch) The 'free' services either don't have the management capabilities we need to keep track of 500+ accounts, and/or they have advertising on their sites which may not be suitable for student viewing.