

With over 17 rural schools, St. Tammany Parish definitely benefits from eRate and desperately needs broader band width, especially with mandated state End of Course testing, Compass, and using the Common Core Standards resources.