

The world has changed. Schools are transforming to keep up with the global changes and access to information. The tools that school rely on to support learning has changes. Now mobile devices provide learning opportunities 24/7. Funding needs to change to keep up with the growing demands. E-Rate must support and fund mobile devices for our students. We have a moral obligation to connect every student and provide the best learning opportunities for our kids.