

All efforts should be made to ensure that our students have the latest technology (and modes of accessing it) readily available to them, in order to optimize their educational experience and enable them to compete in the world market!