

Why is Nexstar Broadcasting allowed to evade ownership rules simply by creating another company named Mission broadcasting that it controls. We are going to end up with two or three broadcast groups owning all of the TV stations in this country. This issue is causing TV people to lose their jobs all across the country.