

I want to comment that website, web hosting, and email are necessary to the educational and learning environment that we seek to foster here at Mother of God School. We appreciate the funding that has been provided in the past and our services to the students would suffer if we lost that funding.