

E-rate needs to be extended outside the school walls but run by the school district for each child with the technologies given to them by the school district,,, especially in the lower income/ free and reduced lunch.

That's real school equity.

State Rep.

Linda Chapa LaVia

Chaiman of Elemetry and Secondary Ed in Illinois House of Representatives