

Increasing bandwidth needs have put an increasing pressure on our District to meet student needs. Pajaro Valley Unified School district is helped tremendously by E-Rate funds, and our students benefit tremendously by being able to utilize modern communication methods. By increasing E-rate funding to at least $5 billion per year, our schools may continue to meet students' learning needs. Communications literacy over high-speed networks allows for our students to remain competitive in skills essential to our nation's future.