Greg Guice
Director
Office of Legislative Affairs
Federal Communications Commission
445 Twelfth Street, SW, Room 8-C445
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Mr. Guice:

I would like to express the concerns of one of my constituents regarding the Federal Communications Commission's regulation of broadcast indecency.

As I understand, the Commission is considering comments about changing the rules governing these regulations, specifically whether the Commission should return to a policy of forbearance from enforcement against isolated expletives, whether the Commission should maintain the policy of issuing fines for isolated expletives, and whether the Commission should treat isolated and non-sexual nudity differently from isolated expletives.

My constituents are concerned the restrictions on nudity and profanity will be relaxed from their current standards, and I have enclosed my constituent's concerns.

Thank you for your time and consideration. Please contact Holli Heiles in my office if you have any questions at holli.heiles@mail.house.gov or (202) 225-2506.

Sincerely,

Tim Griffin
Member of Congress

CONSTITUENT CONCERNS

Please do not allow the FCC to relax its rules concerning nudity & profanity as they now exist.

We have suffered enough from those who would continue to undermine our society.

Thank you for your consideration
