Dear Ms. Chairwoman,

Several of my constituents have contacted my office to express their concerns about recent Federal Communications Commission (FCC) proposed rule changes regarding allowable nudity and profanity on television and radio. It is my belief that consideration should be given to ensure that FCC proposed rules uphold strong decency standards in our society. Please find a copy of my constituents' correspondence enclosed.

Thank you in advance for giving these concerns every possible consideration.

Sincerely,

<MSG>
We, the undersigned, urge the FCC to reject the new proposed rules on allowable nudity and profanity on TV and radio.

Dear FCC, what value to society could possibly come from adding more nudity and profanity to programming?
